

2010 Sing Out!

EVENT FACT SHEET

Sing Out! for the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center (CRCC) is a community event that raises awareness about sexual violence, as well as financial support for the only local agency providing comprehensive services to sexual assault survivors and those who support them. The all-star Sing Out! chorale is comprised of community, civic and business leaders who join voices to sing out against rape and sexual violence. The result is an unparalleled, inspiring musical evening that both empowers and educates the audience, while raising funds to support the proactive and reactive services of CRCC.

- When: Thursday, May 27, 2010 at 7 p.m.
VIP pre-performance dinner begins at 5:30 p.m.
- Where: The Cleveland Play House
8500 Euclid Avenue
- Honorees: Richard W. Pogue, Senior Advisor, Jones Day
Joanna Connors, Reporter, The Plain Dealer
- Co-Chairs: Chuck Fowler, President & CEO, Fairmount Minerals
David Hooker, Managing Partner, Thompson Hine
Geri Presti, Senior Vice President, Forest City Enterprises
- Tickets: $250 – includes dinner, performance and dessert
$100 – includes performance and dessert
- Sponsors: Exclusive sponsorship packages are available for corporations and individuals offering many benefits including presenting sponsor naming rights and opportunities throughout the event for recognition.
- Contact: For tickets and additional information call 216-619-6194, x107.

CRCC is dedicated to serving survivors of sexual assault and those who support them with superior direct services and advocacy; education and training; and activism. All of these services are provided confidentially and completely free of charge to more than 15,000 people every year. CRCC is the only organization in Cuyahoga County dedicated to serving survivors of sexual violence.