Individuals and Organizations Can Help Prevent Sexual Violence

Cleveland Rape Crisis Center (CRCC) offers educational programs to hundreds of schools, organizations and businesses throughout Northeast Ohio. Every year, more than 10,000 people from preschool to adult participate in CRCC's prevention and training programs. Presentations are tailored to the needs of each audience, including:

Topics include:

Preschool through 2nd grade

- Child sexual abuse prevention

Middle and high school students

- Rape awareness and rape culture
- Sexual assault, sexual coercion and consent
- Sexual harassment
- Healthy relationships

College students

- Rape awareness and rape culture
- Acquaintance rape
- Drug and alcohol-facilitated rape

Men and boys

- Men of Strength Clubs

Teachers and adults who work with youth

- Responding to sexualized behavior in the classroom
- Stewards of Children: Adults' Responsibility in Preventing Child Sexual Abuse

Adults

- Rape awareness and rape culture
- Supporting survivors
- Community resources for survivors
- Understanding the law and legal process
- Child sexual abuse prevention

CRCC also provides customized professional trainings and technical assistance to individuals and agencies in the community that treat survivors of sexual assault.

It is estimated that one out of three women and one out of six men are survivors of sexual violence. The CRCC helps survivors recover and grow strong. Our vision is the elimination of sexual violence. But, as long as this crime persists, we will continue to serve survivors and equip the community with vital tools to help address rape and sexual assault.

You can help end sexual violence...

Engage an educator. You can help encourage understanding issues surrounding sexual violence when you schedule an educational program. Call 216-619-6194 to find out how easy it is to link CRCC with your organization.

The Cleveland Rape Crisis Center is dedicated to serving survivors of sexual violence and those who support them with free comprehensive healing and advocacy services, and to creating social change in the community through education, training, and activism.
